BROADWAY AND TV STAR KRISTIN CHENOWETH HEADLINES AN EVENING AT BING CONCERT HALL ON MARCH 25

Performance to feature selections from her new 'Art of Elegance' album

Stanford, CA, February 23, 2017—A Tony winner for You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown, the vocal powerhouse in Wicked and an Emmy nominee for her memorable appearance on Glee, Kristin Chenoweth was a natural choice to headline Stanford Live's Bing Fling! On Saturday, March 25, she brings her sparkling demeanor and brilliant voice to Bing Concert Hall in a performance with her musical director, pianist Michael Orland.

Chenoweth's program will include a large array of musical styles from her past, as well as highlights from her new recording, The Art of Elegance, her first album of American Songbook classics. "I like to include some songs that people wouldn't normally expect," Chenoweth said in a statement. "I love Dolly Parton, Don Henley ... each concert set is different and I enjoy switching it up for the audience."

Released last September, The Art of Elegance debuted at No. 1 on Billboard's Current Jazz and Traditional Jazz charts and No. 1 on Amazon's Vocal Pop chart. Other recent highlights for Chenoweth include starring in NBC's Hairspray Live! as Velma Von Tussle and receiving a coveted star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame in 2015. She is also lending her voice to animated films such as Lionsgate/Hasbro's My Little Pony: The Movie and The Star, which are set to be released later this year.

Chenoweth's Stanford Live performance is presented as part of the annual Bing Fling! gala, an evening-long recognition event for Bing Members. Concert-only tickets are now available to the general public, ranging from $50-$200 (with discounts for Stanford students). Tickets are available at the Bing Concert Hall Ticket Office, by phone at 650-724-2464 or online at live.stanford.edu.
